Tokyo Rose

The day I was born in 1943, women our soldiers called “Tokyo Rose” were broadcasting anti-American propaganda on the radio to discourage and demoralize our troops with lies.

Yesterday I spoke to a 59-year old man facing 8 years in prison for believing lies about America, and I was required to tell him my 36 years of professional experience and knowledge as an attorney could help him, because the Truth is not on his side, and the law of the land is not what he was unscrupulously led to believe by people who are not his friends.

In another case I was asked to help a woman who refused to pay her bank for a loan she took to buy her home. She demanded that she should not be required to satisfy the promise she made because the bank paid the seller in federal reserve notes that she demanded are not money. She’d been lied to by people who are not her friends. She ultimately lost her home in foreclosure and her husband in divorce.

A young man I met recently will soon suffer from lies he believes about federal taxation, his citizenship, and his obligation to share with the rest of us some part of the burden that being an American imposes, a burden all of us should bear with more commitment, instead of hoping to avoid responsibility by following the recommendation of fools who promote the idea that we are victims instead of fellow Americans. He has no social security number, no bank account, and pays no taxes, because he believes he’s found a loophole. What he’s found is a lie.

He and tens of thousands of others.

Perhaps hundreds of thousands.

Perhaps even more, because the numbers are increasing.

Tokyo Rose and her modern-day progeny are behind it all, undermining confidence in our way of life, our system of Law & Order that is certainly in need of repair by Public Legal Education that could and must resist the conspiracy Tokyo Roses of our time would have us all believe.

Some actually believe they can avoid the strong arm of the law by copyrighting their signature! The idea is that a police officer may not print their name on a traffic ticket nor may a state attorney print their name on an indictment, because their name is protected by copyright. This far-fetched lie is believed by only a few at this hour, but it and other lies are taking root in our society at an alarming rate, and most of us have no idea what is going on behind the scenes.

An amazingly large and increasing number of American rebels hang on the incredibly ludicrous idea that they are not “persons”, that the laws they seek to evade define that term in some way related only to corporations (which, incidentally, have been recently re-defined by a politically-influenced judges to be “persons” for various purposes). They do not know how to read English when examining the legal definitions in various statutes, ignoring commas and the Rules of Statutory Interpretation that have evolved over the centuries and should have been taught to them in High School, if not sooner. Some of these people are relying on the general opinion of fools to evade property taxes upon the premise they are not “persons” liable to tax.

Many (a frighteningly increasing many) believe that since they are not “operating in commerce” they need no license to operate a motor vehicle, nor a tag on the back of their car, nor liability insurance. Most of this idiocy arises from their blind interpretation of a provision in our Constitution that provides one has “freedom to travel”. They choose wildly to believe that provision includes traveling on our highways in powerful vehicles without obeying the laws that our legislatures have enacted to protect the rest of us from fools behind the wheel.

Behind all this is Tokyo Rose and her entourage promoting ridiculous ideas to convince our fellow Americans that government is “out to get them” and steal their precious freedoms.

In the midst of this exploding rebellion is the increasingly popular idea that your city, county, state, and federal governments are secretly nothing more than “corporations” run by a cabal of satanists who profit financially from their nefarious pseudo-official enterprises. Yes. This is unbelievable, but American Justice Foundation® has proof, and if nothing is done to oppose these lies quickly and effectively, then all of us will suffer in ways we have not yet begun to imagine.

For many years we at the Foundation have been inundated with emails from people who are convinced they are not their ALL CAPITAL LETTER NAME when it appears in official documents, claiming their name spelled that way is a fictitious entity and not they themselves. This old saw has been around at least since 1997 and presumably much earlier when it was asserted by liars who seek to undermine public confidence in this nation of ours and its form of government. You, dear readers, may think this utter nonsense, because it is nonsense, but it is also real and prevalent and increasingly taking hold in the minds of people who do not wish to be governed.

These and other unscrupulous falsehoods form the framework of an underground that is expanding at an alarming rate while law-abiding Americans sleep, trusting that “all is well” so long as the surrounding madness doesn’t impact them personally. Let sleeping dogs lie they say, and lie they will. Someone else will take care of us, they imagine. Then, when it is too late to act, who will they turn to then?

What is the root of the problem ... if indeed there is a problem?

We at the Foundation think most of you know what the problem is, but you haven’t heard our voice, you weren’t taught the undergirding Principles of Justice that make Civilization possible. You assumed “someone else” was in charge of all that legal stuff, that you could go to work, pay your taxes, and enjoy the Blessings of Liberty with no fear.

Yet now you are beginning to see there is a giant fly in that ointment.

You are beginning to see something is amiss. It has crept up on you, and it is showing its frightful face in places where you never caught a glimpse of it before, and you are beginning to wonder if America herself is in jeopardy!

Someone left the henhouse door open!

There are wolves in the sheepfold.

Tokyo Rose is alive and well in this Twenty-First Century.

These seemingly insane ideas are “coming from somewhere”. Clearly they are not from radio broadcasts transmitted from towers in Japan, as they were in the early 1940’s when our boys were bleeding and dying for your right to be protected by our American system of Law and Order that today’s young people are taught to despise.

But, they are clearly “coming from somewhere”.

They are too complex to be the product of the half-witted minds that believe them.

Tokyo Rose was many people. She was the female voice of a large number of Japanese broadcasters promoting lies to our troops in harms way, seeking to mislead them about where our ships were being destroyed, how our war machine and resources back home were being depleted, how we were losing the war. The gullibility of Americans in general was so widespread and intent on believing lies that a relatively innocent Japanese girl named Iva Toguri was convicted of espionage and spent nearly 20 years in a federal prison, when in reality Tokyo Rose was only the voice of Japan at war, a well-sponsored propaganda machine employing dozens of young Japanese girls to tell our boys lies.

Today there is a new, more powerful voice lying to our boys and girls, our middle aged moms and dads, and even our elderly who too often would rather just ignore the lies and let the end of life relieve them of any need to disturb their retirement by openly acting in opposition to the growing storm of deception that continues to lie to all of us who remain unwilling to loose our lips in opposition to the lie of political correctness nor certainly to loose our purse strings to the lies that are now even being taught in our schools.

Public Legal Education is a moral imperative!

We’ve been told, “The Truth will set you free,” but too many of us are unwilling to pay attention to the Truth and, certainly, unwilling to pay money to promote it in our schools and elsewhere as the darkness of deceit and deception infest our lives in every corner where Light is ignored.

No lie is our friend.
